

mission from below growing pdf

Mission From Below is an inspiring example of how a seriously neglected community can bring about its own transformation without any fads or initiatives imposed from on high by the church. Contemporary evangelism is in danger of becoming obsessed with the quick win, of demanding instant results and immediate, measurable returns.

Mission From Below: Growing a Kingdom Community

Mission from Below provides a case study for pioneers, but with a caution: this is a historical rather than contemporary account, and our rapidly changing contexts undermine its usefulness. Hodgson changes tack for the second half of her book, harnessing arguments informed by liberation theology to chastise the growing emphasis on church growth ...
