It's been one of higher education's saddest ironies: a remediation system intended to fix what's broken has itself needed repair. For every 100 Massachusetts community college students who enrolled in a traditional developmental math course in 2015, only 24 went on to complete a credit-bearing math course within two years.

A delusion is a mistaken belief that is held with strong conviction even in the presence of superior evidence to the contrary. As a pathology, it is distinct from a belief based on false or incomplete information, confabulation, dogma, illusion, or some other misleading effects of perception. They have been found to occur in the context of many pathological states (both general physical and ...
