PDF Printing Too Dark When Sent to Printer. I am using Adobe X Pro and have installed the latest update. My pdf, which looks fine on-screen is printing darker (and slightly blurry, but legible) when sent to our Xerox machine. The same pdf prints clearly when sent from Adobe reader, or when sent from Pro to a different printer (HP deskjet).

Google Chrome displays PDF files perfectly well without an extension. I'm not sure if this is something installed by Adobe or whether it is now native in Chrome, but the fact that Chrome displays PDF files in the same tab or in a different window without any shenanigans, but won't display them in a new tab clearly shows that Google needs to make sure the devs know this so they can fix it (a ...
