A Petri net, also known as a place/transition (PT) net, is one of several mathematical modeling languages for the description of distributed systems. It is a class of discrete event dynamic system. A Petri net is a directed bipartite graph, in which the nodes represent transitions (i.e. events that may occur, represented by bars) and places (i.e. conditions, represented by circles).

Service choreography is a form of service composition [clarification needed] in which the interaction protocol between several partner services [clarification needed] is defined from a global perspective. The intuition underlying the notion of service choreography can be summarised as follows: "Dancers dance following a global scenario without a single point of control"

Business Process Mining: An Industrial Application

Business Process Management (BPM) research resulted in a plethora of methods, techniques, and tools to support the design, enactment, management, and analysis of operational business processes. This survey aims to structure these results and provide an overview of the state-of-the-art in BPM. In BPM the concept of a process model is fundamental.
