In New Orleans, locals are always happy to stop and give directions to visitors. Sometimes those directions might be confusing. In our vernacular, "north, south, east and west" are usually replaced by "lakeside, riverside, downtown and uptown" which doesn't tell you much of anything if you're not from here.

Hiking is the preferred term, in Canada and the United States, for a long, vigorous walk, usually on trails (), in the countryside, while the word walking is used for shorter, particularly urban walks. On the other hand, in the United Kingdom, and the Republic of Ireland, the word "walking" is acceptable to describe all forms of walking, whether it is a walk in the park or backpacking in the Alps.
